15	I know lots of other gay people.
21	So when some kids say, "Your dads are gay!" I'll just say, "Yes, they are!"
27	The rainbow is often used as a symbol of pride for the LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer or Questioning) community.
28	Throughout our history we've used hateful terms to depict various groups of people who are different from the majority, are without power, and are therefore easier to pick on. Hateful terms depicting those who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered, queer, or any people whose gender presentation is non-traditional remain one of our society's current dilemmas. Marginalizing any group of people is wrong, as is the use of derogatory language toward anyone.
