5	...Sarah knew who she was inside: a girl. ...because of the body she was born in, everyone saw and treated her as a boy.
8	...she was transgender.
18	She typed her truth in an online post: I am transgender. I am a woman. I am Sarah. The illustration on this page depicts Sarah sitting a table looking at a laptop. There are stickers on the back of the laptop. One of the stickers is a heart with the design of the "transgender" flag on it.
23	The illustration on this page depicts several children sitting in front of a television. One of the girls sitting on the floor, is waving a "Progress Pride" flag. A girl, standing near a wheelchair with rainbow-colored wheels, is wearing a pink dress with the "Gender Fluid Pride" design across the chest. See Figure 1.
30	HOW TO BE A TRANS ALLY AS A CIS PERSON

In 2020, Sarah knocked on Delaware doors once again, running for state senator. She told residents her ideas to make her home state more safe, healthy, and equal for all. And she won!

Trans kids across the country celebrated their role model's groundbreaking victory.
