

THE PRONOUN BOOK

Book Summary:

This book teaches very young children about pronouns people may want to be called despite their outward appearance.

Summary of Concerns:

This book contains alternate gender ideologies.

Easy Reader

By Chris Ayala-Kronos

ISBN: 9780358701446

1
/5

Child Guidance
BookLooks Review Rating

Page	Content
6	The illustration on this page depicts several individuals with speech bubbles announcing their pronoun as "SHE." Among the individuals, there is an older man with a mustache saying, "SHE."
8	The illustration on this page depicts several individuals with speech bubbles announcing their pronoun as "HE." Among the individuals, there is a girl with a stocking cap and long purple hair; a woman with a blue polka-dotted blouse and chin-length blue hair; a young girl with shoulder-length blue hair in a wheelchair; a woman in a blue blouse with short blue hair; and a dark-skinned woman with a purple dress.
9	The illustration on this page depicts an older man with a beard. The word above his head reads: THEY.
10	The illustration on this page depicts several individuals with speech bubbles announcing their pronoun as "THEY."
13-14	The illustration on this page depicts a woman with a blue polka-dotted blouse and pink apron holding a tray of bread loaves. The word next to the woman reads: HIM.
15-16	The illustration on these pages depicts a young individual looking into a bag. The word next to the person read: THEM.
17-18	The illustration on these pages depicts three individuals playing instruments. A man is playing the drums. The word beside the individuals reads: HERS.
19-20	The illustration on these pages depicts three individuals walking together. One of them is the woman with the blue polka-dotted blouse described above. Another woman is wearing a purple dress and pink sunhat. The last individual has chin-length hair and a masculine chin. The word beside the image reads: HIS.
21-22	The illustration on these pages depicts a young individual with long pink hair and roller skates. The word beside the image reads: THEIRS.
25-26	The illustration on these pages depicts several individuals of various ages in a park. They are all wearing buttons on their shirts with pronouns written on the buttons.